Concert Is Great Success for G. W.

BIG CROWD TURNED OUT TO WITNESS THE OPENING CONCERT OF G. W. GLEE CLUB IN JOINT CONCERT WITH GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUBS OF COLUMBIA.

The joint concert of the Columbia University Glee and Mandolin Clubs and the George Washington University Glee Club, held in the "Salon des Nations" of the Washington Hotel on February 1, was pronounced an overwhelming success by the evident delight of the large audience which heard the program ranging from ultra-classical selections to the old-time plantation melodies. This performance was the premier for the George Washington Glee singers.

Robert W. Colflesh, manager, and Mr. King-Smith, director of the Washington Glee Club, are responsible for the success of this, the greatest entertainment that has been staged at this University this year. Mr. Colflesh took upon himself the responsibility of guaranteeing the visitor college such an amount of money that it was imperative that the concert be exceptionally well attended in order to clear expenses. Through his efforts, more than 400 persons were present and made the undertaking a vast success. Mr. King-Smith, who has been directing the Glee Club a month and a half, deserves wholly the credit for its excellent performance and credible showing in competition with a club of merit and reputation.

Columbia University was represented by 58 men and brought with them 40 stringed instruments. They ably showed their appreciation for the hearty reception which G. W. U. endeavored to give them. Coming direct from Wilmington, Del., they visited the following day the Mount Vernon Seminary for girls.

Among the individual hits, George Washington scored with Preston Haynes' pleasing rendition of "Her Eyes Have Told Me So," while W. T. Taylor, of Columbia, brought down the house with "I Don't Need the Oulja Board Now," "Since I Met Marie," and "College Baby," which he dedicated to the fair co-eds of our University. The George Washington Glee Club pleased most with its "Melisande in the Wood," but the old song, "Annie Laurie," was rendered also beautifully and reached fond depths in the hearts of many of the audience. "Old King Cole" was the favorite piece sung by Columbia.

The officers of the G. W. U. Glee Club who took prominent parts in the presentation of this momentous affair included Mr. King-Smith, director; Robert W. Colflesh, manager; Preston Haynes, president; and Benjamin J. Foster, secretary. The dance committee comprised Mr. Colflesh, chairman; Benjamin J. Foster, C. Walter Parker, Preston Haynes and William T. Taylor, of Columbia.

The following was the arrangement of the program as presented:

1. "Hymn Before Action." (Encore) Stand up and Cheer. Columbia Glee Club
2. Medley of Popular Songs. Columbia Mandolin Club
3. Melisande in the Wood. George Washington Glee Club (Encore) Her Eyes Have Told Me So.—Preston Haynes.
4. Ole King Cole. (Encore) That Little Peach. Columbia Glee Club

SPHINX HONOR SOCIETY INITIATES TWO CO-EDS

Confers Honor on Girls Having Made Unusually Good Averages in Scholastic Work.

Sphinx, the honor society for girls who have particularly distinguished themselves in University activities, announces the initiation of Martha Waring and Helen Mankey.

Martha Waring, vice president of the 1921 senior class, was sergeant at arms of the junior class and secretary of the sophomore class. She is a member of the Women's University Club, the G. W. Players, and was on the Student Council. Miss Waring worked hard on the Near-East Campaign and has helped to promote many worthy causes at G. W. by making effective posters. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi.

Helen Mankey, a member of the junior class, is well known in girls' athletics, being member of the basketball, tennis and swimming teams. She is also a member of the Women's University Club and was chairman of the Near-East Relief Campaign. She is a member of the Phi Mu fraternity.

The scholarship of both these girls is very high, both having made an average grade of over 95 per cent.

5. Wait Till Ah Put on My Crown. (Encore) Sweet and Low. George Washington Glee Club
6. Kashmiri Song. (Encore) I Don't Need the Oulja Board Now; Since I Met Marie; College Baby. W. T. Taylor, of Columbia.
7. Kentucky Babe. (Encore) Croon, Croon Underneath the Moon. George Washington Glee Club
8. Infanta Patrol Medley. Columbia Glee Club
9. Medley of Columbia Songs. (Encore) Sans Souci. Columbia Glee Club
10. Annie Laurie. George Washington Glee Club

At the conclusion of the concert, practically the entire audience stayed to the dance, which lasted until 12 o'clock. Music was furnished by Goldman's eight-piece orchestra. Every effort was made by the George Washington students to see that the men from Columbia thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

G. W. READY TO SHOOT IN NATION WIDE MATCHES

Rifle Interest Receives Considerable Attention As International Match Is Arranged.

The George Washington rifle team has held regular practices during the past few weeks and is now ready to send its crack shots into the national intercollegiate indoor championship rifle matches, which begin the first week in February. With this announcement comes news of rifle teams of other universities. The rifle teams of Yale and Oxford Universities have scheduled the first international rifle match. The newly formed rifle club at Johns Hopkins University has arranged meets with Drexel Institute and Georgetown University.

In connection with the coming intercollegiate matches, in which our team will participate, it is interesting to learn that three members of the 1917 rifle team of Central High School (Washington) will lead rival aggregations and shoot against their former teammates. These men are Walter Stokes, manager of the G. W. U. team; Ralph Day, captain of the New York Staters; and Jesse Cooley, captain of the University of Pennsylvania shots.

The international rifle match scheduled by Yale and Oxford, is an unprecedented event in rifle history and is causing much comment and anticipation as to the outcome. There have been a number of international rifle matches, shot between teams representing the United States and England, but this is the first international match between collegiate teams.

Yale and Oxford have already exchanged targets. The standard N. R. A. 75-foot targets will be shot. Eight men will shoot on each team. Officers of the United States and British Armies will act as referees of the matches at New Haven and Oxford.

The Johns Hopkins team has decided upon a new plan of choosing their representatives for their matches with Drexel and Georgetown. The team will be composed of the ten men who have made the best averages during the week previous to the contest. By this method, instead of the formation of a team on the basis of a one-day try-out, no one can claim to have failed on account of an off day.

HOLIDAY ANNOUNCED.

The Secretary of the University has sent out announcements to the effect that February 21 will be a holiday in all departments of the University, in commemoration of the centennial of the University, which is being celebrated during the ten days beginning February 19th.

DEAN RUEDIGER TO TEACH AT CORNELL THIS SUMMER

Has Appointed Assistant To Carry on Work As Director of Summer School—To Be Absent 7 Weeks.

Dean Ruediger of the Teachers' College and professor of educational psychology in the Department of Arts and Science, has accepted a position at Cornell University as instructor for the coming summer session.

As heretofore, he will devote his talents to the field of educational science, assuming command of two classes that will cover "The Principles of Education," "Sociological Objective," and "The Theory of the Classroom." The dean's object in offering his services to another and larger school is, it is believed, for the purpose of gaining a wider experience in this branch of university work, with the possible view of introducing new and better features into the George Washington University courses. His duties at Cornell will extend over a period of seven weeks and will in no way interfere with his duties here during the present school year. Although his absence will be greatly regretted among the students of Teachers' College, the student body will be pleased to learn that the dean will continue as director of the summer session at George Washington University and will be back at the old stand in September.

His duties as director of summer school will be properly discharged by an assistant, whom he has appointed for the period of his absence. The dean has also made arrangements for a visit of four or more days to George Washington University during the session to attend duties here.

MRS. HARDING PATRONESS FOR G. W. U. SORORITY

Coalition Club Now Petitioning Well-Known National College Fraternity for Charter.

Mrs. Warren G. Harding, who will come to the White House as "First Lady of the Land" on March 4th, has become patroness for the Coalition Club of George Washington University, one of the most popular sororities, which embraces in its attractive personnel representatives from all departments of the college and now petitioning one of the well-known general fraternities.

G. W. U. conferred an honorary degree on the President-elect long before the distinguished Senator became candidate for the highest honor which it is possible for the people of the United States to bestow, and the entire school takes the utmost pleasure in the fact that Mrs. Harding, too, has thus shown her interest by identifying herself with Coalition. Her gracious acceptance has been in the hands of the secretary, Dorothy Johnston, for more than ten days, its arrival having caused elation to the girls of the sorority.

DON'T BE BILLED.

Student Activity Tax money for the second semester is due now. Don't wait to be billed. Go to the Treasurer's Office and pay your money, or mail check. Some of the best basketball games on the schedule are being played this and next week. Student tickets marked "A" are not good this semester. There are a good many signers who have not paid their first installment. They are pledged to pay, and are expected to do so at once, along with the second semester money.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL GIVES SOCIAL FEBRUARY 4

Social Committee Discusses Possibility of Giving Formal Dinner Dance at Wardman Park Hotel.

El Circulo Espanol, the Spanish Club of the University, will hold its next meeting on Friday evening, February 4, at 8 p. m., in the lecture room of 2017 G Street Northwest. At this meeting, which will be a combination of the social meeting scheduled for the third week in January and which was given up because of mid-year examinations, and the regular monthly business meeting of the club, an especially good time is promised those who attend.

Among the more important questions in business which will come before the club is the matter of the adoption of a simple insignia for active members. The need for such a device is very marked, it being desirable that the only language club of the University make itself known. By displaying an emblem to indicate membership many will be attracted to the meetings, and the success of the club pushed forward apace. Another subject of importance to be brought up is whether or not the club is to be represented by a box at the Junior Prom, and what part the club will take in the celebration of Centennial Week.

In preparation for the social part of the evening, a committee consisting of Miss Herbst and Miss Pickering and Messrs. Peterson and Ricketts met on January 24 to make plans for the event. The only information relative to this committee meeting given out was that dancing, refreshments and a good time were on order for the occasion. There was also some talk of a formal dinner dance to be held at Wardman Park Inn some time in the future, for the members of the club, but this last is still up for consideration before the social committee.

El Circulo Espanol is making splendid progress and hopes to become one of the large representative groups of the University. The use of Spanish will increase with each successive meeting. It has been planned to have at least one address in Spanish at every meeting, and also to have frequent lectures on Central and South America, illustrated by pictures of the several countries. With these addresses and lectures in Spanish even those most unfamiliar with Spanish will find great benefit in attending, and they will certainly find their familiarity with Spanish increased with every meeting.

El Circulo Espanol extends to all those in the University a hearty invitation to attend the next meeting and to affiliate themselves with the organization.

ESSAY TO GAIN WRITER FREE TRIP TO ITALY

Italy-America Society To Give Tour As Prize for Best Essay by Undergraduate.

With Charles Evans Hughes as president, the Italy-America Society, located in New York City, is offering a trip to Italy during the summer vacation of 1921 as a prize for the best essay submitted by an undergraduate student of an American college or university on the subject, "Italy's Contribution to Modern Culture." The trip includes a five weeks' tour through Italy and France. Under the auspices of the society, the same tour is arranged for any students who care to go for a payment of $600. As this is the six hundredth anniversary of Dante's death, the National Dante Committee has designated the members of this tour to place a bronze memorial on Dante's tomb as a tribute from American colleges and universities.

The essays will be judged by Dr. John H. Finley, former president of the University of New York; Dr. Stephen P. Duggan, director of the Institute of International Education, and Prof. Ernest H. Wilkins, head of the Department of Romance Languages and Literature at the University of Chicago.

The contest will be held subject to the following conditions:

1. The contest shall be open to any undergraduate student of any university or college in the United States.
2. The prize shall be awarded, subject to the conditions named, to the student who writes the best essay of not less than 3,000 nor more than 10,000 words on the subject, "Italy's Contributions to Modern Culture."

VIRGINIA TO PLAY G. W. AT COLISEUM

Hatchettes Tackle Charlottesville Men Saturday and Roanoke College on Friday Night.

The University of Virginia basketball team, undefeated at the present writing, comes here Saturday night to play George Washington at the Central Coliseum.

For the first time in many years Virginia and George Washington are meeting in athletics. Once or twice before the Virginians have been played in basketball. Next fall, what is hoped to be the continuance of a long list of football engagements will be played at Charlottesville, Va., between G. W. U. and Virginia.

With the Virginia quint is the famous "Pop" Lanigan, veteran coach of Virginia basketball and track teams for many seasons.

The University of Virginia team will probably line up with Neuman and Edwards, forwards; Talbot, center, and Mahood and Via, guards.

Virginia has a veteran team and one of the best it has boasted in a number of seasons. The George Washington University team will probably be composed of Springston, Eskew, or Chesney, forwards; Loehler or Hatchet, center, and Daily and Capt. Boteier, guards.

Friday night, just before the Virginia game, the George Washington team is playing Roanoke College, of Roanoke, Virginia.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR JUNIOR PROM

Junior Prom To Be Given at Rauscher's; Dance to Last for Four Hours.

"Strike while the iron is hot," says Russell Mason. "The Junior Prom tickets are on sale and the demand is great. Buy one while you have the dough." Socrates, or somebody, said that "a word to the wise is sufficient." This is the word.

The Junior Prom tickets are hot from the press, and the G. W. adherents are hot after them. Distribution of the tickets was made last Tuesday, and they can be bought from the members of the Junior Class or from representatives among the fraternities.

The tickets retail for five berries. Lotsa jack!, you will remark; but just stop to consider what you get when you purchase one. A permit to dance for four long hours at Rauscher's to the snappy tunes of Mr. Myer Davis' best eight-piece effort; a bunch of food, including ice cream, cakes, and punch, a la Blue Sunday; a very cute and very trick ill' program of real leather made in the form of a cardcase to give the lady afterwards; and the programs are durable effects, stamped with the University seal in gold; and then you will have a chance to get, for a mere nominal sum, a flashlight picture of the dance, with you in your radiance and stiff nekkar, and your lady in glory and lace; and after all that, given graciously and gratuitously, twin tickets or the Junior Play, "The Truth," a few nights later.

The chairman of the Prom committee has stated repeatedly that the Prom will be the biggest affair ever put on at the U. You've heard that many times before; in fact, each chairman says that; but take it from us, Junior Class has staked its cash and this is the real thing this time. The reputation to make this Prom a knockout, and if you are dissatisfied with the proceedings at Rauscher's the night of February 24, the class will—buy a ticket from you, sometime.

And when you are forking over five iron men for the Prom, remember that he class is inviting you to the big informal reception that it is giving at the Raleigh Hotel on the afternoon of February 21. This affair is assuming gigantic proportions.

The University administration officials and their wives, together with the deans and their wives, will be in the receiving line, and one man, a junior designated by President William Miller Collier, will speak. There will be a six-piece orchestra to play for dancing, and many gallons of juicy punch for the thirsty mouths.

Considering it all in all, when you spend five dollars for a Prom ticket, you are really getting your money's worth. A tea dance at the Raleigh, a prom at Rauscher's, and a bang-up play of real merit. The tickets are for sale. Who's next?

WASHINGTON, D. C. FEBRUARY 4, 1921

One Great Need

George Washington University is spending a great deal of money, is putting up with considerable inconvenience, and is helping defeat the purpose of student activities in failing to provide its students with an assembly hall and gymnasium. All of the university functions very properly should be held on university property. The various activities have about outlived their welcome at the different places which have been borrowed or begged. The time is about ripe for sober and serious consideration of a sizeable hall for assemblies, school functions, and the like, and a large enough place for basketball games and other indoor sports. Class and fraternity dances and other activities might be held in such a gymnasium. George Washington draws to a considerable extent upon the Washington High Schools. A big gymnasium at G. W. U., where the high schools would be invited to hold their annual series in the afternoons, would be a great advertisement for the University. More than five thousand students from the schools would have access to it for two or three months in the year. A big gymnasium would save the University time, money, and a deal of inconvenience. The time seems appropriate to take steps toward finding out just what can be done in the matter. Will you do your share?

High Water Marks

Two high watermarks have been reached in university life this year which are expected to set a standard for the future. The dinner given the football team last fall was a success from every standpoint. The joint concert recently given by the Glee Club in conjunction with the Columbia University Glee Club at the Washington was a fine tribute to the Student Activity Department. Such functions are to be followed very shortly by others, and they are to be on such a noticeably high plane as to raise them so far above other like university functions as to cause considerable comment. It has always been maintained that there are great possibilities for development here at G. W. U. Everyone seems to have cooperated to the fullest extent in putting across things which redound to the credit of the University and reflect an awakened spirit. Let's have more Glee Club concerts. The coming Centennial Celebration should be backed to the limit by the student body with as much enthusiasm as has marked the big things that have been accomplished so far this year.

Eddying

AUCTORIAL INTRODUCTION.

Rushing along, the stream pursues its course. It pauses a moment, whirls and eddys, and it is gone again. Even so it is with life. These "Eddies" are by way of diversion: So be it.

To those who feel that self-expression is an absolute necessity, we offer the use of this column at any time, with reservations, of course, as one of our estimable friends from the Hill puts it.

What with all of our self-confessed geniuses about school, we should have no difficulty in providing the dull majority with some innocent diversion.

THEATRICAL RESUME.

A Brief But Splendid Run.

A splendid portrayal of a Bacchanal was given on New Year's Eve, at the Cafe des Enfants. A number of hitherto unknown actors distinguished themselves at this performance.

We have it on good authority from Sir Oliver Lodge that the shade of Oscar Wilde moaned and bewailed the fact that his "Salome" could never again be played, for it would seem like a Friday night Y. M. C. A. supper for Sunday school superintendents, in comparison with this brilliant glittering spectacle.

All of the tricks of the theatrical trade, including a raid by the police, were used. (The managers must have wanted the performance to rival "Aphrodite's" opening in New York last year.)

It is reported that the students of Georgetown and Catholic Universities are working now upon a satire called "Prohibition Ltd." to be presented on March 17th. The book and lyrics are already completed and the cast is being selected.

The drama is returning to its place.

How is a Wireless Message Received?

EVERY incandescent lamp has a filament. Mount a metal plate on a wire in the lamp near the filament. A current leaps the space between the filament and the plate when the filament glows.

Edison first observed this phenomenon in 1883. Hence it was called the "Edison effect."

Scientists long studied the "effect" but they could not explain it satisfactorily. Now, after years of experimenting with Crookes tubes, X-ray tubes and radium, it is known that the current that leaps across is a stream of "electrons"—exceedingly minute particles negatively charged with electricity.

These electrons play an important part in wireless communication. When a wire grid is interposed between the filament and the plate and charged positively, the plate is aided in drawing electrons across; but when the grid is charged negatively it drives back the electrons. A very small charge applied to the grid, as small as that received from a feeble wireless wave, is enough to vary the electron stream.

So the grid in the tube enables a faint wireless impulse to control the very much greater amount of energy in the flow of electrons, and so radio signals too weak to be perceived by other means become perceptible by the effects that they produce. Just as the movement of a throttle controls a great locomotive in motion, so a wireless wave, by means of the grid, affects the powerful electron stream.

All this followed from studying the mysterious "Edison effect"—a purely scientific discovery.

No one can foresee what results will follow from research in pure science. Sooner or later the world must benefit practically from the discovery of new facts.

For this reason the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company are concerned as much with investigations in pure science as they are with the improvement of industrial processes and products. They, too, have studied the "Edison effect" scientifically. The result has been a new form of electron tube, known as the "pliotron", a type of X-ray tube free from the vagaries of the old tube; and the "kenetron", which is called by electrical engineers a "rectifier" because it has the property of changing an alternating into a direct current.

All these improvements followed because the Research Laboratories try to discover the "how" of things. Pure science always justifies itself.

WHO'S WHO IN G. W. JUNIOR CLASSES

Third of Series of Short Biographies of Presidents of Junior Classes of George Washington.

Miss Gladys R. Twele, president of the Junior Class of Teachers' College, was born in Baltimore, Md., May 27, 1901. She can probably boast of attending as many schools and colleges as any other girl in the University. George Washington should be proud of having held her here for three long years.

Miss Twele started in school at London, Canada, and continued in Indiana, Pennsylvania and Illinois. She started in high school at the Union Academy of Southern Illinois and remained there for two years, attaining the positions of treasurer for the first year and president of her class in her second year. Then entering Western High School of Baltimore, Md., she continued there for two years, graduating in 1918. Of the 300 graduated at this time, she was one of the ten who graduated with honors.

In 1918 Miss Twele entered George Washington University and made the highest scholarship in the freshman class of Teachers' College. She was appointed one of the representatives of Teachers' College at the annual Pan-Hellenic Scholarship Luncheon in 1918. Miss Twele is a member of Woman's University Club and The Coalition Club, besides holding the position of president of the Junior Class in Teachers' College.

SCHEDULE FOR 1921 FOOTBALL COMPLETED

The George Washington University football management has announced the schedule for next year's football season. The schedule includes the University of Virginia and Georgetown, two of the strongest teams in this region. The University of Virginia is to be played at Charlottesville, affording the team a fine trip to start the season off with, while the game with Georgetown will be played at American League Park, here in this city.

The trip to Charlottesville is not the only trip the team will take, as it travels to Norfolk to battle the William and Mary's team, to Philadelphia to play the Drexel Institute, and to Chestertown to play Washington College.

There will be games of high caliber here for the benefit of the local supporters. Western Maryland, the team that tied G. W. this year, will be with us again next season. Gallaudet will be taken on at American League Park, as also will Georgetown. The big game of the season will be played at the American League Park with Catholic University on Thanksgiving Day. The complete schedule follows:

- Oct. 1—University of Virginia; at Charlottesville.
- Oct. 8—Western Maryland; at League Park.
- Oct. 15—William and Mary; at Norfolk.
- Oct. 22—Drexel Institute; at Philadelphia.
- Oct. 29—Georgetown; at League Park.
- Nov. 5—Washington College; at Chestertown.
- Nov. 12—Gallaudet; at League Park.
- Nov. 24—Catholic University; at League Park.

COLUMBIAN WOMEN TO AID ACTIVITIES

The Columbian Women of George Washington University gave a moving picture Wednesday, Feb. 2, at the Knickerbocker Theater, 18th Street and Columbia Road Northwest, in order to help raise funds to finance Junior Week, as well as some of the activities of the University.

The moving picture exhibited was "Dombey and Son," by the famous author, Henry Irving, Jr. The shows began promptly at 2 and 8 p. m. The regular orchestra of the Metropolitan Theater was engaged for the performances, and several extra numbers were put on by students of the University. The admission charge was 50 cents.

The proceeds cleared from this undertaking are to be split three ways, a third to each of the following funds: The scholarship fund offered by the Columbian Women, the Law School rest-room fund, and the fund for Centennial and Junior Week.

CAN OBTAIN EXTRA COPIES OF THE 1921 CHERRY TREE

Students who have not signed the Student Tax and who desire a copy or copies of the 1921 Cherry Tree, and Tax Signers who wish extra copies, may obtain them for the sum of five (5) dollars per copy, two (2) dollars payable at time of subscription, balance payable on receipt of book.

Persons who have not signed the tax or subscribed for a copy will not be able to do so after February 15, 1921.

Subscriptions may be given to any member of the Cherry Tree staff or mailed to C. Walter Parker, business manager, Cherry Tree, G. W. U.

FOOTBALL NUMERALS ARE READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

The numerals to be awarded to men on the football squad are ready for distribution. All men eligible to receive the insignia can obtain it at the office of the Director of Student Activities. If any of the men care to have sweaters at the same time, they can make arrangements with W. A. Clark. If enough care to obtain sweaters, a very favorable rate may be secured.

BATES AND DEBATES.

The debating team of Bates College recently challenged Princeton University and was accepted. Last year Bates defeated Harvard in debate. They intend to make a "clean sweep" of the "big three" this season.

TIME TO GO.

If she wants to play or sing,
It's time to go;
If o'er your watch she's lingering,
It's time to go;
If she wants your signet ring,
Frat house pin and everything,
(Speak, oh Death, where is thy sting?)
It's time to go.

If the parlor clock strikes two,
It's time to go;
If her father drops a shoe,
It's time to go;
If she sweetly says to you,
"Stay a little longer, do!"
Get your hat and then skiddoo—
It's time to go.

G. W. DEFEATED IN HARD-FOUGHT GAMES

Varsity Loses by Close Margin to C. U.,
While Freshmen Compel Extra
Period Against C. U. Frosh.

The basketballers of G. W. received a double defeat at the hands of Catholic University teams in two of the closest and hardest-fought battles seen on local courts this season. In the first encounter the varsity lost by the small margin of 5 points, the final count being 17-12. The second engagement went into an extra 5-minute session, as the frosh of both schools had accumulated 25 points apiece when the final whistle blew.

The Catholic first-year men counted three times from the floor while Birmingham was tossing two fouls for the G. W. frosh, making the count to read 31-27 at the end of the extra period.

In the first half Catholic University tossers caged the ball three times, twice by Donovan and once by Dunn, while the Hatchettes were not able to cage any floor goals, due to the close guarding of their opponents. Many fouls were called on both sides during the half, and had G. W. been able to gather more points by this method they probably would have annexed the game. The half ended 11-5 in C. U.'s favor.

After the rest period the Hatchettes started a spurt which only lacked two points of taking the lead from the Brooklanders. Loehler was the first G. W. man to score from the floor, and his success was immediately followed by a clever shot from Springfield. In this period the effect of poor foul shooting put in its deadly work for the Hatchettes, as Boteler missed four out of four attempts and Loehler missed two out of the same number of tries.

The game between the George Washington freshmen and the freshmen of Catholic University, which followed the regular game, was a fast and exciting one. Bieslin, C. U. forward, counted first from the floor, but Colburn, Hatchette center, soon followed with a neat one from the side. The Washington frosh led the whole first period, as they held the big end of a 15-12 score when rest time was called.

In the second period some mighty interesting basketball was displayed by both teams. The C. U. forwards then caged the ball enough times to take the lead, 25-24. Birmingham counted from the 15-foot line in the last minute of play, tying the score, 25-25.

C. U. freshmen scored three floor goals in the extra 5 minutes, while the G. W. frosh had to content themselves with two fouls caged by Birmingham. The work of Birmingham at foul tossing was especially good, as he caged 11 out of 16 tries and also scored twice from the floor.

Defeated by Johns Hopkins.

Playing into luck in the last few minutes of play, Johns Hopkins received the verdict from George Washington quint in a closely contested battle staged at the Central Coliseum, Ninth and Pennsylvania Avenue, last Friday evening, January 28. The final score was 32-29. George Washington clearly outplayed the visitors in the first half and led at the end of the period, 19-11.

Owings, Hopkins left forward, dropped the ball through the hoop in the first minute for the first count. Immediately the ball was worked toward the Hatchettes' basket, where Daily tossed in a neat one. From here on it was all George Washington's game, and for a time threatened to be a walkaway. Springston caged 4 baskets, some being exceedingly difficult, and Eskeu showed his usual stellar brand of basketball by his floor work. It was during this half that Eskeu caged a basket from the middle of the floor. During this period Loehler missed 5 out of 8 chances to score from the 15-foot line.

In the first few minutes of the second half it was nip and tuck, as the rest seemed to improve the passing game of the Baltimoreans. At this point Daily was benched by the four personal fouls method. From here the Baltimore boys started caging baskets with increasing regularity. Owings and Barrett, of the visitors, each caged 4 baskets in this period. With the score standing 25-20 in favor of Hopkins, Loehler dropped a free toss through the hoop and started an interesting three minutes of fighting. Owings then played into luck by caging 2 baskets from the side of the court, followed by 1 from Barrett and a free toss, bringing their count up to 32 points. Loehler caged the last basket for the Hatchettes by taking a pass from Boteler and hopping almost as high as the cage, dropped the ball through. The game ended with Boteler caging a free toss.

3. The winning student will be given a trip to Italy, with all expenses paid, as one of the college students who are going to Italy during the summer vacation of 1921 under the auspices of the Italy-America Society.

4. The essays will be judged for mastery of their subject, arrangement, readability and neatness. All essays must be typewritten, on one side of the paper only.

5. The contest will close on April 15th at 12 noon. No essay received after that date will be considered.

6. The decision of the judges shall be final. The judges reserve the right to make no award in case no essay is submitted which in their estimation merits the prize.

7. The Italy-America Society reserves the right to publish the winning essay.

8. Essays should be mailed to Mr. Irwin Smith, Manager, the Italy-America Society, 23 West 43d Street, New York City.

The tour has the recognition and assistance of the Italian government. It includes visits to Gibraltar, Naples, Rome, Florence, Bologna, Ravenna, the burial place of Dante, Venice, Milan, Turin, Paris, Havre, and many places of historical importance. All of these places are rich with memories of the Renaissance but in addition, the industry and commerce of modern Italy will be seen. One trip of especial interest will be that to the ruins of Pompeii.

While crossing the Atlantic there will be classes in the Italian language and a course of lectures on Italian history, art, and culture. In Italy the party will be under the instruction of some of Italy's most distinguished scholars.

Mrs. Wendell Phillips Stafford, wife of the associate justice of the Supreme Court, is to serve in a like honorary capacity, as will a few other prominent women, the list as yet being incomplete.

The Coalition Club was the first to organize for the purpose of cementing all departments of the University and unify interests scholastic, social and athletic, starting activities last spring, nearly a year ago. And while the longer established fraternities had secured for patronesses wives of faculty members, the movement was unofficially endorsed by all the deans, who have been most generous in assisting in every possible way to further the success of the local.

The charter membership of Coalition numbers ten: Hildred Egan, president; Etta Taggart, vice president; Dorothy Johnston, secretary; Ruth Bennett, treasurer; Gladys Twele, Margaret Smith, Fred Lee Woodson, Lucy Manning and Thelma Baines, in addition to Mary O'Shannon (Danny) Webster, who, as a representative of the Medical department, was installed last Saturday night when the sorority met with Dorothy Johnston at the Rochambeau for the ceremonial, followed by a social session. The pledges include Marguerite Daly, Filimori Wilgus (Law), Virginia Smith, Margaret Patterson and Eleanor Lane (Arts and Science).

GRADUATING CLASSES TO BE PART OF PROCESSION

Members of the graduating classes in both June and February will participate in the academic procession in the Centennial Convocation and the Convocation Sermon. Caps and gowns will be on hand at the Church of the Covenant, where the sermon is to be held, on Sunday, February 20, at and after 2 o'clock. Caps and gowns will be issued at that time and retained by seniors until after the Centennial Convocation on Tuesday, February 22.

WRESTLERS ARE INVITED TO MEET ON FEBRUARY 10

Medical School Session To Be Open to All Grapplers Interested at George Washington.

All men interested in the formation of a wrestling team are invited to attend a meeting to be held at the Medical School on the night of Thursday, February 10, at 7.30 o'clock.

It is expected that arrangements will be completed within the next few days for a place to train the wrestling team. It is proposed to schedule matches with nearby college teams in order to get a start this season.

Later in the year George Washington expects to enter a team in competition for the South Atlantic A. A. U. championships to be held in Baltimore around April 1.

Several exceptionally good wrestlers are known to be in college. James H. Hundley, a junior in the Law School, has been temporarily appointed to make the preliminaries for the wrestling team.

The men will wrestle in 115, 125, 135, 145, 158 and 175 pound classes for competition. A competent coach, a former George Washington wrestler and South Atlantic champion, has been obtained to handle the wrestlers.

ELEVEN GAMES ON BASEBALL SCHEDULE

Gallaudet, St. Johns, William and Mary, and Villanova Listed for Spring
Games in Washington.

Eleven games have been arranged so far by Manager Ed Hanson, of the baseball team, for the spring. The schedule has not been ratified by the Board of Managers as yet, but there is every indication that the games as arranged will be formally adopted when the contracts are all in.

The difficulty of finding a place to play the games confronts the manager and director of student activities. It has deemed wise, on account of the many handicaps confronting the baseball team and the fact that visiting teams demand such heavy guarantees, to cut down the schedule to eleven games.

Contests with Georgetown and Catholic University may be arranged later.

The schedule follows:
March 25—Cardinal A. C., at Alexandria, Va.

April 6—St. John's College, at home.

April 9—Gallaudet, at Kendall Green.

April 14—William and Mary, at home.

April 25—Trinity College, at home.

April 27—St. John's College, at Annapolis, Md.

April 28—Villanova College, pending.

May 4—Gallaudet College, at home.

May 6—Mt. St. Mary's, at Emmitsburg, Md.

May 7—Villanova, pending.

May 11—Johns Hopkins University.

A call for baseball candidates will be issued shortly, at which time the men will be listed for practice sessions.

Stupid Steve Says:-

How many times did you hear this last week?
"If I ever get through with these exams, I sure am going to study hard next semester."

Dear Stupe:

Mr. Hornaday has asked me for a job; can you recommend him as a steady man?

Answer: Sure; if he were any steadier he would be motionless.

Dear Steve—I understand you called me a learned jackass; now I demand an apology.

Answer: You misinterpreted me. I said you were a "burro of information."

Speaking of hick towns, when "Jake" went home last summer, the first three persons he saw did not recognize him, and the next three didn't even know that he had been away.

Dear Stupe: I must debate against pacifism. What could I say?

Answer: Just point out that President Wilson only received $40,000 Nobel peace prize, while Jack Dempsey got $100,000 for one fight.

The report of the Superintendent of Schools read, in part: "The girls made a better showing than the boys in the fire drill."

De Pew—Can you recommend a nice easy job for me?

Helen—Yes; calling stations on the White Star Line.

Prof.—What is a conjunction, and give an illustration.

Student—A conjunction is a word connecting anything, such as, "The horse is hitched to the fence by his halter." "Halter" is the conjunction because it connects the horse to the fence.

CHANGE DATE OF PROM.

At the last meeting of the Interfraternity Association it was decided to hold the Interfraternity Prom on March 18 instead of March 17, as was formerly set. Dancing probably will last from 9.30 to 1.30. Meyer Davis' orchestra will furnish the music. The prom will be held at Rauscher's. The tickets will be $4 per couple.

TO ARRANGE SPECIAL MATCH.

A committee was appointed by the Interfraternity Association to make arrangements for a special bowling match between a team composed of the stars of all the fraternity teams and Sigma Nu team.

GIRLS TO PLAY ALUMNI.

The girls' varsity basketball team is to play the alumni team February 5 at Business High School at 8 o'clock sharp. This has been arranged so that those who wish to go to this game and the boys' game, which is also scheduled for that evening, can easily do so.

The next game will be with Temple College, of Philadelphia, February 11, in the Epiphany Church gymnasium, at 8 o'clock. A combination team of the Blue and Buff Squads played National Park Seminary at National Park Saturday, January 29. The score was 33-7, in favor of National Park.

All players are to be at Business at 7.45, in uniform, to have pictures taken for the Cherry Tree.

SENIOR LAW MIXER.

The senior law class has sent out handbills proclaiming that a big class mixer will be held Saturday, February 5, at 8.30 p. m., at the Law School. Justice Stafford, Dean Ferson and Prof. Wilson will be the chief speakers of the evening. Then there will be stunts by several talented members of the class. "Cam" Burton, of course, will entertain with a fersichorean act, after which there will be several musical numbers, followed by dancing, for which Harry Sokolov, famous jazz artist, will play.

Altogether, the party looks very promising, and those lawyers who attend are guaranteed a good time.

NOTICE.

Meeting of the freshman class Friday, February 4, at 8 o'clock, in the chapel in Lisner Hall. Important; everybody come!

OPEN SONG CONTEST FOR LAW SCHOOL BANQUET

The Law School Senate urges the many well-known composers in the University to compete for the magnificent prizes to be given for the best song hit written to the tune of some popular song. These songs will be sung at the Law School banquet, and the winner will be chosen by a vote of those students and alumni who attend the banquet. The songs must be handed in to some member of the Senate by February 1. Last year the same system was used, and it was productive of some very excellent songs.
